

		Based on the foregoing, the motion is DENIED. Defendants are entitled to recover the full amount of costs sought in their memorandum of costs. As the prevailing parties, Defendants are ordered to give notice of this ruling.
10.	Rarz Yaron v. Sierra S. Conley 2026-01546480	CONTINUED TO DECEMBER 10,2026, at request of moving party.
11.	Contreras vs. Ace Restoration & Construction, Inc. 2022-01247671	Before the court is the motion of plaintiff Carla Contreras (Plaintiff) to enforce settlement agreement pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks an order enforcing the settlement agreement entered into between Plaintiff and defendants Ace Restoration & Construction, Inc., Cheree Nichelle Fay, and Shelby Lynn Cordova (collectively, Defendants) by entering judgment against Defendants and compelling them to execute valid and properly notarized documents including the required Deed of Trust, appointing an elisor to execute such documents if Defendants fail to comply, and awarding attorney fees and costs against Defendants. As more fully set forth below, the motion is GRANTED. During 2024 when the parties' entered into the settlement agreement and Plaintiff dismissed this action, Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6, subdivision (a), stated, "If parties to pending litigation stipulate, in a writing signed by the parties outside of the presence of the court or orally before the court, for settlement of the case, or part thereof, the court, upon motion, may enter judgment pursuant to the terms of the settlement. If requested by the parties, the court may retain jurisdiction over the parties to enforce the settlement until performance in full of the terms of the settlement." Here, Plaintiff has shown the parties entered into the settlement agreement and agreed it would be enforceable pursuant to section 664.6. Moreover, the parties stipulated and the court agreed to retain jurisdiction to enforce the agreement. Plaintiff also has shown Defendants breached the settlement agreement. Defendants have not filed any opposition to this motion. The court therefore finds Plaintiff satisfied the requirements of section 664.6 and Defendants breached the agreement warranting this motion to enforce the settlement. Based on the foregoing, the motion is GRANTED and the court will enter judgment against Defendants based on the
