Motions:

1. General Motors LLC’s Demurrer to Plaintiff’s First Amended Complaint
2. General Motors LLC’s Motion to Strike Punitive Damages from Plaintiff’s First Amended Complaint

Tentative Ruling:

Defendant General Motors LLC’s demurrer to Plaintiff’s Third Cause of Action for Fraudulent Concealment is OVERRULED.

Defendant General Motors LLC’s demurrer to Plaintiff’s Fourth Cause of Action for Violation of the Consumers Legal Remedies Act is OVERRULED. The FAC sufficiently alleges actionable representations and omissions under the CLRA. The Court further finds that the FAC sufficiently alleges compliance with the procedure authorized by Civil Code § 1782(d): the original Complaint sought CLRA injunctive relief, alleged contemporaneous written notice to GM on February 27, 2026, and contemplated amendment after expiration of the 30-day period; the FAC was thereafter filed on April 1, 2026 and alleges that the statutory notice was sent by certified mail and that GM failed to provide corrective relief within 30 days.

Defendant General Motors LLC's motion to strike Plaintiff's prayer for punitive damages is DENIED. The surviving fraudulent-concealment allegations, taken as true at the pleading stage, allege conduct capable of constituting fraud or malice under Civil Code § 3294, and the FAC expressly alleges that the challenged conduct was perpetrated, authorized, or knowingly ratified by an officer, director, or managing agent.

Plaintiff is ordered to give notice.
