CASE: Roni Alvandi v. Alvand Transportation Corp., et al.

CASE NO.: 23STCV11510

PLAINTIFF

RONI ALVANDI'S EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF

STIPULATED

JUDGMENT

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Roni Alvandi move ex parte for an order entering the parties' stipulated judgment.

Plaintiff argues ex parte relief is necessary because Defendants Alvand Transportation Corp. and Victor Alvandi failed to make any payments under the parties' Settlement Agreement, thereby triggering a provision authorizing Plaintiff to apply ex parte for entry of a stipulated judgment.

For the reasons stated herein, the Ex Parte Application is GRANTED.

II. DISCUSSION

Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 166(a)(4), the court rules on Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application in chambers.

On May 7, 2026, the parties entered into written settlement agreement (the "Agreement"). The Agreement states, in relevant part, Defendants agree to provide a Stipulated Judgment against them jointly and severally in the amount of the Settlement Payment ($1,800,000.00), which Plaintiff may submit with a request for entry of judgment in the event of an Uncured Default, on an ex parte basis with notice to the Defendants, which judgment shall be reduced to account for any payments made by Defendants under this Agreement. Plaintiff's request for entry of judgment shall be supported by his or an attorney's declaration showing the payments previously made. An executed Stipulated Judgment shall be delivered concurrently with Defendants' signature of this Agreement as Exhibit A to this Agreement. Plaintiff's counsel shall hold the Stipulated Judgment in trust. After Plaintiff receives the last installment payment of the Settlement Payment and the Settlement Payment is paid in full, Plaintiff's counsel shall return the PDF copy of the Stipulated Judgment to Defendants' counsel and Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel will delete/shred any other copies of the Stipulated Judgment.

(Shaumyan Decl., Ex. 1 (the "Agreement"), ¶ 3.)

Here, Plaintiff

submits evidence to establish that Defendants failed to make any payments under the Agreement and were provided a Notice of Default and Right to Cure. (Shaumyan Decl., Ex. 2.) Defendants did not cure the default. Accordingly, as authorized by the parties'

Agreement, Plaintiff is entitled to ex parte relief.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application is Granted.

The clerk of the court to give notice.
