No. 12 - Marlene Y. Martin Estrada v. Angel Estrada, et al.

Defendants Angel Estrada and Dynasty Employment Solutions,
Inc.'s Demurrer and Motion to Strike Portions of Plaintiffs' Complaint

Defendants Angel Estrada and Dynasty Employment Solutions, Inc. demur to Plaintiff Marlene Y. Martin Estrada's complaint. Defendants also move to strike portions of Plaintiff's complaint. Plaintiff did not file an opposition.

This matter was originally set for hearing on August 10, 2026. The Court found that Defendants failed to file a meet and confer declaration in support of their demurrer and motion to strike as required under the Code. (See CCP §§ 430.41(a), 435.5(a).) Due to this error, the Court continued the hearing on the motion to allow the parties time to meet and confer. The Court held: "Defendants should submit the required meet and confer declaration at least 16 court days before the next hearing as required under the Code." (8/10/26 Minute Order.) No such declaration has been filed. Therefore, the Court will continue the matter again.

Disposition

Defendants Angel Estrada and Dynasty Employment Solutions,
Inc.'s demurrer and motion to strike portions of Plaintiff Marlene Y. Martin Estrada's complaint are continued to October 13, 2026, at 8:30 am. Defendants should submit the required meet and confer declaration at least 16 court days before the next hearing as required under the Code.
