Request for Sanctions

Motion: Plaintiff's Motion for Further Responses to Request for Production (Set One)

Tentative Ruling: The Motion is granted in part.

Plaintiff acknowledges receiving 2,982 pages of documents from Defendant on August 26, 2026. (Reply at 7:2). The Motion does not concern the production of documents, but rather, Defendant's responses to the Requests for Production. Defendant has stated that it will serve supplemental responses as soon as they are available, no later than September 11, 2026. (Bykerk 8/28/26 Dec. at ¶12).

The Court overrules Defendant's objections and orders supplemental responses to be provided except as follows:

Attorney-client privilege, work product protection and privacy objections may be maintained provided an appropriate privilege log is provided.

The objections to RFP No. 6, 12 and 35 are sustained and no further response is required.

The court awards $1,680.70 in sanctions to Plaintiff, to be paid by Defendant and Defendant's counsel jointly and severally, due within 30 days.
