Case Number: 25VECV04853 Hearing Date: August 19, 2026 Dept: O

The Court will be denying entry of default judgment for the following reasons:

1. Statement of Damages requirement is unsatisfied. A Statement of Damages is not filed with the Court nor mentioned in the 585 declaration. Thus, it appears it was not served prior to entry of default as required. The SOD must be served on Defendant and default requested again because the Court will be striking entry of default.

2. Evidence regarding loss of earnings/future earnings is insufficient. The submitted evidence does not support a conclusion Plaintiffs have incurred losses in earnings or future earnings due to any reputational harm.

In addition, the Court will issue a separate order denying Plaintiff's Application to Seal. In short, while the Court finds the allegedly defamatory statements are so inflammatory that allowing them to remain public will serve to advance Defendant's allegedly malicious intent to defame Plaintiffs more than allowing them to remain public will serve the right of public access, Plaintiff's request is not narrowly to Plaintiffs' interest. That separate order will provide further detail on which information should and shouldn't be redacted.
