No. 10 - La Loba De Wall St. LLC, et

al. v. Hillfoot LLC

Attorney Steven N.

Richman's Motions to Be Relieved as Counsel for Plaintiffs La Loba De Wall St.

LLC and The Nuno Residence LLC, and Cross-Defendant Maricela Nuno

Attorney Steven N.

Richman of Eport, Richman & Robbins, LLP moves to be relieved as counsel for Plaintiffs La Loba De Wall St. LLC and The Nuno Residence LLC, and Cross-Defendant Maricela Nuno. The Court cannot grant the motions.

Attorney Richman did not lodge a proposed order on form MC-053 with the Court. (See California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362(e).) The proposed order must be filed and served on all parties. (See California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362(d) ["The notice of motion and motion, the declaration, and the proposed order must be served on the client and on all other parties who have appeared in the case."] [emphasis added].)

In addition, Richman did not list the Case Management Conference scheduled for September 9, 2026 as an upcoming hearing date on his declarations. (See Decls., § 4.)

Apart from these procedural defects, Attorney Richman's motions meet all other requirements.

Attorney Steven N.

Richman's motions to be relieved as counsel for Plaintiffs La Loba De Wall St.

LLC and The Nuno Residence LLC, and Cross-Defendant Maricela Nuno are denied without prejudice.
