Petition for Minor's Compromise Re: Mia Wickard

The petition for minor's compromise is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

The petition at No. 1 fails to check the box indicating Maria Vera is guardian ad litem. At No. 3 the petition incorrectly states this matter is not subject to a pending action as a complaint in this matter was filed on December 15, 2025. No. 11 is incorrect as there are others that are receiving a settlement. There is no documentation supporting the request for costs regarding medical records/billing. No. 16 is not completed. No. 17(f) appears to be incorrect as there is an additional minor's comp where the attorney is requesting fees. Last, as 18(b)(7) is selected, attachment 18b(7) is insufficient as the attachment fails to specify the terms of the proposed trust. Alternatively, if the funds are to be placed in a blocked account, then 18(b)(2) would be the appropriate selection and attachment 18b(2) would need to be attached.

Petitioner is able to refile the petition once the above issues have been addressed.

Motion for Leave to File First Amended Complaint

The motion for leave to file a first amended complaint is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

The declaration in support fails to address all the proposed additional causes of action. Further, while leave to amend is generally granted liberally, the proposed first amended complaint contains, on its face, unmeritorious causes of action.

Accordingly, the motion for leave to file a first amended complaint is denied without prejudice.
