Tentative Decisions for August 19, 2026

Courtroom #1: Judge J. Omar Rodriguez

FL-16-00211 Mathews, Christopher vs. Mathews, Ana

Petitioner's Request for Order to Enforce Judgment, filed July 22, 2026, is GRANTED in part. To the extent the parties have not already jointly selected and retained a QDRO preparer and/or actuary, the parties shall do so within thirty (30) days of the hearing on this motion, with the costs shared equally as provided in paragraph 6.2 of the Marital Settlement Agreement ("MSA"). Both parties shall fully cooperate with, and timely provide all documents and information requested by, the actuary and/or QDRO attorney retained to prepare the Qualified Domestic Relations Order dividing the community interest in any and all relevant retirement accounts governed by paragraph 6.2 of the MSA.

FL-23-00214 Delgado, Edgar vs. Delgado, Nancy

In light of the judgment that was entered, the Status Conference and Order to Show Cause are vacated. No appearances are necessary.

FL-24-00040 Pulizzi, MaryAnne Therese vs. Pulizzi, Tyler David

The Court GRANTS Petitioner's Request to Stay the Proceedings. Petitioner requests to stay the proceeding so that the Court of Appeal has an opportunity to determine the issues raised in the writ petition. Under California Code Civil Procedure section 918, the trial court is broadly empowered to stay the enforcement of any judgment or order. The trial court has discretion to stay the execution of child custody and visitation orders pending review on appeal, or for any other period the court deems appropriate, to protect the welfare of the child and prevent the child from being subjected to instability during the appellate process. (Cal Code Civ Proc § 917.7.) Since Petitioner is challenging the underlying order regarding the child custody investigation and investigator's qualifications, the Court will continue the hearing on the Request for Order to November 18, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. for Status Review.
