The balance of the outstanding loan is needed, even if other payment arrangements will be contemplated. 3. Fees: a. Statutory Fee Amount Incorrect. It appears that Petitioner has calculated statutory fees on an estate value of $499,868.76. It is unclear how this amount was derived as noted above. A loan to the estate is not an appropriate receipt to include in statutory fees. The loan must be repaid and is not money collected into the estate that adds value to the estate. It is a liability of the estate. It appears only rental income of $50,450.00 exists and possibly the civil judgment. Clarification is needed. b. Fee Split on Statutory Fees. The prayer of the Petition indicates that statutory attorney's fees shall be split between present counsel and Mr. Balsamo to "be determined either by agreement or by the Court". The Court requires a written agreement between counsel for approval. If an agreement cannot be reached, a proposed split is needed, with notice to each party and an opportunity to respond. Please review California Rules of Court, rule 7.704. |

|     |             |                             |                              | c. Extraordinary Fees. As noted above, it appears there may be a request for extraordinary fees in the civil litigation completed for the estate. A request and supporting invoices are needed for review. 4. Schedule H proposes a “plan” to loan the estate money to pay off attorney’s fees. It is unclear how the loan would work, as the estate is in a position to close and it would then have a liability unpaid, in addition to the current liability owed to Ms. Owens. Is the plan perhaps not a loan, but an agreement of the parties to pay 1/3 of the fees and outstanding liabilities personally in order to close the estate? Clarification is needed and if a loan is being used, a copy of the proposed loan documents will be needed, along with an explanation how the estate may close with that outstanding loan and no way to repay the same. 5. An omnibus clause is needed. The language in item 2 of the prayer is not clear so to later discovered property. 6. The request for discharge upon distribution is not in line with Probate Code section 12250. Discharge will be determined upon filing the appropriate receipts and an Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge and Order (DE-295). 7. A proposed Order is needed. 8. It is recommended Sanctions be issued for the failure to keep this matter moving. |
