Plaintiff

Longsail USA Corporation's Request for Entry of Default Judgment

Defendant: Solar4America Technology Inc.

TENTATIVE RULING

Plaintiff's request for entry of default judgment is DENIED without prejudice. Plaintiff can resubmit the default judgment request correcting the defects identified herein before the hearing on this matter.

BACKGROUND

This

is a business dispute. On September 22, 2025, plaintiff Longsail USA Corporation (Plaintiff) against defendant Solar4America Technology Inc.

(Defendant) and Does 1 to 20, alleging causes of action for breach of written contract, breach of settlement agreement, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, constructive fraud, unjust enrichment

(quasi-contract/restitution), declaratory relief, and reimbursement of arbitration fees.

On

January 12, 2026, the court clerk entered default against Defendant.

On

May 5, 2026, the Court denied Plaintiff's request for entry of default judgment without prejudice.

On

June 15, 2026, Plaintiff requested entry of default judgment.

LEGAL

STANDARD

Code of Civil Procedure section 585 permits entry of a default judgment after a party has failed to timely respond or appear. (Code Civ. Proc., § 585.) A party seeking judgment on the default by the court must file a Request for Court

Judgment and: (1) a brief summary of the case; (2) declarations or other admissible evidence in support of the judgment requested; (3) interest computations as necessary; (4) a memorandum of costs and disbursements; (5) declaration of nonmilitary status; (6) a proposed form of judgment; (7) a dismissal of all parties against whom judgment is not sought or an application for separate judgment under Code of Civil Procedure section 579, supported by a showing of grounds for each judgment; (8) exhibits as necessary; and (9) a request for attorneys' fees if allowed by statute or by the agreement of the parties. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1800, subd. (a).)

Plaintiff seeks default judgment against Defendant in the total amount of $1,128,818.11, including $864,867.55 in damages, $263,333.04 in interest, $0.00 in attorney fees, and $617.52 in costs. The Court still finds some of the same problems with Plaintiff's default judgment request. (See Order re Court Ruling (5/5/26).) First, Plaintiff still has not provided documentary evidence of damages of Defendant failing to pay. (Code Civ. Proc., § 585, subd. (b) ["The court shall hear the evidence offered by the plaintiff, and shall render judgment in the plaintiff's favor for that relief, not exceeding the amount stated in the complaint... as appears by the evidence to be just"]; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1800, subds. (a)(2), (a)(8).) In the context of a request for court judgment by default, evidence to establish liability is not required since a defendant's failure to answer the complaint admits the well-pleaded allegations of the complaint, and no further proof of liability is required. (Carlsen v. Koivumaki (2014) 227 Cal.App.4th 879, 883.) However, proof of damages is still required. (Id. at p. 884.) Crystal Biao's declaration indicates having reviewed Plaintiff's business and payment records, but no such records were provided with this default judgment request. (Biao Decl., ¶ 9; see Statement of the Case, Exs. A-D.)

Second, it is not clear that the March 16, 2023 settlement agreement (the 2023 Settlement) entitles Plaintiff to recover $864,357.55 in damages. The 2023 Settlement shows "$864,357.55" in two places crossed out by pen or pencil with the words "Balance To Be Determined" written in their place. (Statement of the Case, Ex. A, p. 9 of pdf.) The 2023 Settlement otherwise provides that Defendant would make weekly payments of $25,000.00 until the settlement amount is paid off, but given that the settlement amount is defined as "Balance To Be Determined," it is unclear whether the parties even have an enforceable agreement with respect to the 2023 Settlement. (See Molen v. Friedman (1998) 64 Cal.App.4th 1149, 1153 ["a default only admits the well pleaded allegations of the complaint and, where those allegations do not state a cause of action or contain all elements essential to support the demand for relief, the judgment is void as to such matters"].) Plaintiff also did not countersign the 2023 Settlement. (Statement of the Case, Ex. A, p. 12 of pdf.) It is also unclear how Defendant could breach the 2023 Settlement on March 3, 2023, when the 2023 Settlement is dated March 16, 2023, and Defendant signed the 2023 Settlement on March 16, 2023. (Statement of the Case, Ex. A, pp. 13, 16 of pdf.) It appears then that the prior October 27, 2022 settlement agreement, which provides a settlement amount of $742,211.00, would govern the parties' dispute. (See Statement of the Case, Ex. A, pp. 13-14 of pdf.) All of these issues need to be addressed by Plaintiff.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's request for entry of default judgment is DENIED without prejudice. Plaintiff can resubmit the default judgment request correcting the defects identified herein before the hearing on this matter.
