

counsel, the Court notes that the Proposed Conservatee's counsel was served on 6/9/26 and, therefore, may be prepared to proceed with the hearing. In the interests of efficiency, because all other parties entitled to notice have been served with timely notice of the hearing, the Court requires appearances to ascertain whether the Proposed Conservatee is prepared to proceed with the hearing. If the Proposed Conservatee's counsel represents that he is not prepared to proceed due to lack of sufficient notice, the matter will be continued at the hearing.

PETITION FOR CHANGE OF NAME

TENTATIVE RULING: Notice has been properly published and no written objections have been filed. The petition is GRANTED without need for appearance.

¹ Given that the Petition attaches decedent's will (naming Petitioner as executor) and requests it be admitted to probate, the Court assumes the indications in the title of the Petition for "Letters of Special Administration" and in the Proposed Letters for "administrator of the decedent's estate" are inadvertent errors. The Court construes the Petition as only one for Probate of Will and for Letters Testamentary.
