OPPOSING PARTY

(none)

MOTION

Shawn Bahmani of Morgan & Morgan

California, LLP, counsel for Plaintiff Keisha Anderson ("Counsel") moves to be relieved as counsel, citing a breakdown of the attorney-client relationship. The motion is unopposed.

LEGAL

STANDARD

Code of Civil Procedure section 284 provides "[t]he attorney in an action or special proceeding may be changed at any time before or after judgment or final determination as follows: 1. Upon the consent of both client and attorney, filed with the clerk, or entered in the minutes; 2. Upon the order of the court, upon the application of either client or attorney, after notice from one to the other."

Procedural Requirements

California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362, requires:

(1) the motion must be made on form MC-051; (subd. (a));

(2) it must be accompanied by a declaration on form MC-052 stating why the motion is brought under Code of Civil Procedure section 284(2) instead of a consent brought under section 284(1); (subd. (c));

(3) a proposed order on form MC-053 must be lodged with the court, specifying all hearing dates scheduled in the action or proceeding, including the date of trial, if known; (subd. (e)); and

(4) The documents must be served on the client and on all parties that have appeared in the case. (subd. (d).)

If

the notice is served by mail or electronic service, it must be accompanied by a declaration indicating that the address served is the current address, or in the case of service by mail, that it was served on the last known address and a more current address could not be located after reasonable efforts within 30 days before filing the motion. (Ibid.) The court may delay the effective date of the order relieving counsel until proof of service of a copy of the signed order on the client has been filed with the court.”

(Ibid.)

Substantive Requirements

Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1.16(a) outlines the reasons a lawyer must withdraw from representation of a client:

(1) the client is bringing an action, conducting a defense, asserting a position in litigation, or taking an appeal, without probable cause and for the purpose of harassing or maliciously injuring any person;

(2) the representation will result in violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct or the State Bar Act;

(3) the lawyer's mental or physical condition renders it unreasonably difficult to carry out the representation effectively; or

(4) the client discharges the lawyer.

Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1.16(b) outlines the reasons a lawyer may withdraw from representation of a client:

(1) the client insists upon presenting a claim or defense in litigation, or asserting a position or making a demand in a non-litigation matter, that is not warranted under existing law and cannot be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;

(2) the

client either seeks to pursue a criminal or fraudulent course of conduct or has used the lawyer's services to advance a course of conduct that the lawyer reasonably believes was a crime or fraud;

(3) the

client insists that the lawyer pursue a course of conduct that is criminal or fraudulent;

(4) the

client by other conduct renders it unreasonably difficult for the lawyer to carry out the representation effectively;

(5) the

client breaches a material term of an agreement with, or obligation, to the lawyer relating to the representation, and the lawyer has given the client a reasonable warning after the breach that the lawyer will withdraw unless the client fulfills the agreement or performs the obligation;

(6) the

client knowingly and freely assents to termination of the representation;

(7) the

inability to work with co-counsel indicates that the best interests of the client likely will be served by withdrawal;

(8) the

lawyer's mental or physical condition renders it difficult for the lawyer to carry out the representation effectively;

(9) a continuation of the representation is likely to result in a violation of these rules or the State Bar Act; or the lawyer believes in good faith in a proceeding pending before a tribunal that the tribunal will find the existence of other good cause for withdrawal.

DISCUSSION

Counsel has filed forms MC-051, MC-052, and MC-053. The attorney declaration (MC-052) indicates that the motion was filed instead of filing a consent because:

There has been a breakdown in the attorney-client relationship, and counsel has determined that continued representation is no longer feasible. After further investigation and evaluation of the facts and applicable law, counsel has concluded that counsel cannot continue pursuing the claims asserted in this action consistent with counsel's professional obligations. Counsel has communicated with the client regarding these issues, but the circumstances necessitate withdrawal.

(MC-052 at ¶ 2.) As such, the Court finds that the motion complies with the Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1.16(b)(4).)

The proofs of service indicate that the requisite forms were served on the client and on Defendant by mail. The attorney declaration further indicates that the client's address has been confirmed current within the past 30 days by text message with the client. (MC-052, ¶ 3.) Therefore, the Court finds the motion to be procedurally proper.

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

Having found the Motion both procedurally and substantively proper, the Court Grants Counsel's Motion to be Relieved as Counsel.

Counsel must serve the signed order (form MC-053), which shall include information about all future hearings and proceedings noticed by any party, or ordered by the Court, on the clients and all other parties who have appeared in the action, within 10 days of the date of this Order, and file a proof of service of such. Counsel will remain the attorney of record for Plaintiff Keisha Anderson until Counsel files the requisite proof of service. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1362(e).)

Further, to ensure that the Court's records are updated following the filing of the proof(s) of service, Counsel shall contact the Court to advise that the proof of service has been filed.
