Lourdes Beltran v. Carlos Ochoa,

23NWCV03670

This personal injury action was filed on November 13, 2026. Trial is scheduled to begin on September 21, 2026. Counsel for Plaintiff Lourdes Beltran (Plaintiff) filed a Motion to be Relieved as Counsel on July 27, 2026, which is scheduled to be heard on August 14, 2026. Plaintiff's counsel argues good cause exists to advance the Motion to be Relieved as Counsel so that if it is granted, Plaintiff will have time to substitute counsel or prepare to proceed in propria persona.

Plaintiff's counsel's ex parte application to advance the Motion to be Relieved as Counsel is DENIED. Advancing the Motion to be Relieved as Counsel will affect Plaintiff and/or Defendant's right to statutory notice. (See Code Civ. Proc., § 1005, subd. (b).) The Court notes that Plaintiff's counsel indicates that Plaintiff consents to the withdrawal. Plaintiff's counsel is not precluded from seeking an earlier resolution through a showing of consent by both client and attorney. (See Code Civ. Proc., § 284(1).)

Moving party to give notice.
