CVRI2502460	JAIRATH vs JAGUAR LAND ROVER NORTH AMERICA, LLC	MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS FEES

Tentative Ruling:

GRANT the motion for attorney's fees in the reduced reasonable amount of $11,900.

The hourly rates sought by Plaintiff's counsel are excessive for the Riverside County geographic area on a simple lemon law case. Anthony Greco's rate of $595 per hour is reduced to $500 per hour, Christopher Urner's hourly rate is reduced from $525 to $350 per hour, and the law clerks' rates are reduced to $150 per hour. In addition, the total attorney time expended in this case is excessive. The action was filed on 5/7/2025. Defendants' answers were filed on 6/26/2025 and 8/8/2025, and a settlement was reached on 11/30/2025. There has been no law and motion conducted in the action (apart from this fee motion), and only an initial round of discovery has been propounded. The court will reduce the total time spent on this case from 46.8 hours to 32.9 hours. No multiplier is awarded. When applying the reduced hours to the reduced hourly rates, Plaintiff is awarded reasonable attorney's fees of $11,900. The request for costs is moot as Plaintiff has already filed his memorandum of costs on May 21, 2026. (California Rules of Court, rule 3.1700(b)(4).)

CVRI2503747	TONG vs CITY OF RIVERSIDE, A CALIFORNIA CHARTER CITY AND MUNICIPAL CORPORATION	DEMURRER ON 3RD AMENDED COMPLAINT

Continue hearing to 8/19/2026.

This case has a demurrer and motion to strike pending filed by the same party or parties with different hearing dates. Pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1322(b), when both a demurrer and a motion to strike are filed, the motion to strike "must be noticed for hearing and heard at the same time as the demurrer." Accordingly, the earlier-calendared hearing (demurrer) will be continued to the date currently set for the later-calendared hearing (motion to strike) so that they can be heard together.
