#19 - XIAO CHEN vs CHASE CENTERS MANAGEMENT, INC., et al.

The ex parte application is denied. Defendants have not made the affirmative factual showing of irreparable harm or immediate danger that California Rules of Court, rule 3.1202(c) requires. The emergency Defendants assert is one their own scheduling choices created, which is not a proper basis for ex parte relief. Substantively, Defendants have not shown good cause under rule 3.1332. The record reflects a self-created discovery timing problem rather than diligence, and the parties' stipulation is not a substitute for the required good-cause showing.

The application is, therefore, denied without prejudice to hearing the noticed motion on calendar for October 19, 2026.

Additionally, based on the agreement of the parties, they are ordered to complete mediation with Steven R. Kuhn on October 14, 2026.

Court is to give notice.
