Defendant Teri Derouen ("Defendant")

moves for an order compelling plaintiff Paysafe Partners LP ("Plaintiff") to serve further responses, without objections, to Form Interrogatories – General, Set One. The motion was filed on April 21, 2026. The discovery at issue in the motion was propounded on January 30, 2026, with responses initially due on March 3, 2026. The deadline to serve responses was extended to March 13, 2026, and Plaintiff's counsel sent solely objections to an email address that defense counsel repeatedly stated was not to be used for service. Defense counsel sent a meet and confer seeking to obtain substantive responses by April 2, 2026; at Plaintiff's counsel's request, the deadline was subsequently extended to April 10, 2026. However, no responses were served by the deadline.

On a motion to compel further responses, the objecting party has the burden of justifying its objections and showing why a further response is not needed. (Coy v. Superior Court (1962) 58 Cal.2d 210, 220-221; Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 541 [responding party has burden of justifying any objection and failure to respond].)

Plaintiff did not oppose this motion and necessarily fails to justify its objections and refusal to provide substantive responses. Accordingly, the motion to compel further is GRANTED and Plaintiff is ordered to serve further responses, without objections, to Defendant's Form Interrogatories – General, Set One, within 20 days.

With respect to monetary sanctions, the Court notes that the notice of motion requests sanctions against "Plaintiff and its counsel" without identifying Plaintiff's counsel of record by name; therefore, the Court GRANTS Defendant's request for sanctions but imposes sanctions only on Plaintiff in the amount of $536.87, consisting of $476.87 in attorneys' fees (3.5 hours at $545 per hour, divided by 4 motions) and a $60 filing fee, to be paid within 20 days.

Defendant to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at ALHDEPT3@lacourt.org indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
