Victoria Thomas' Motion to Vacate Dismissal

TENTATIVE RULING

Victoria Thomas' Motion to Vacate Dismissal
is granted.

Background

Plaintiff filed the Complaint on December 1, 2025. Plaintiff alleges the following facts. Plaintiff was sexually abused by an agent of Defendants.

Motion to Vacate Dismissal

CCP § 473(b) states, in relevant part: "The court may, upon any terms as may be just, relieve a party or his or her legal representative from a judgment, dismissal, order, or other proceeding taken against him or her through his or her mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect. Application for this relief shall be accompanied by a copy of the answer or other pleading proposed to be filed therein, otherwise the application shall not be granted, and shall be made within a reasonable time, in no case exceeding six months, after the judgment, dismissal, order, or proceeding was taken. . . . Notwithstanding any other requirements of this section, the court shall, whenever an application for relief is made no more than six months after entry of judgment, is in proper form, and is accompanied by an attorney's sworn affidavit attesting to his or her mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or neglect, vacate any (1) resulting default entered by the clerk against his or her client, and which will result in entry of a default judgment, or (2) resulting default judgment or dismissal entered against his or her client, unless the court finds that the default or dismissal was not in fact caused by the attorney's mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or neglect. The court shall, whenever relief is granted based on an attorney's affidavit of fault, direct the attorney to pay reasonable compensatory legal fees and costs to opposing counsel or parties. . . ."

Plaintiff moves for an order granting relief from the entry of dismissal. The motion is brought pursuant to CCP § 473 et seq. on the grounds that the dismissal was entered due to the mistake, inadvertence, surprise, and/or neglect of Plaintiff's counsel. Plaintiff has set forth facts to support a showing that the dismissal was entered due to the mistake, inadvertence, surprise, and/or neglect of Plaintiff's counsel. Plaintiff's counsel failed to appear at the case management conference and order to show cause due to a calendaring mistake. (Decl. Brian J. Perkins, ¶¶ 4-13).

The motion must be granted pursuant to the mandatory provision of CCP § 473(b). The dismissal is hereby set aside.

Plaintiff is ordered to give notice of this ruling.
