[TENTATIVE]

ORDER RE: MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY RESPONSES

Dept.

3

September

28, 2026

United Financial Casualty Company ("UFCC")

is the respondent in an uninsured motorist insurance arbitration initiated by claimants Arsamak Oziev, Iza Ozieva, Amalia Ozieva, Adeliya Ozieva, Salma Ozieva, Aila Ozieva, and Safina Ozieva (collectively, "Claimants").

The superior court has exclusive jurisdiction over discovery disputes in uninsured motorist arbitrations. (Miranda v. 21st Century Ins. Co. (2004) 117 Cal.App.4th 913, 927.) UFCC moves for an order compelling Claimants' responses to Special Interrogatories (Set One), without objections. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290(b).)

The motion is unopposed and it is undisputed that no responses have been served by any of the Ozieva Claimants. Accordingly, the motion to compel responses is GRANTED and each of the Ozieva Claimants are ordered to serve verified responses, without objections, to UFCC's Special Interrogatories (Set One) within 20 days of the date of this Order.

UFCC to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at ALHDEPT3@lacourt.org indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
