

Tentative Rulings and Resolution Review Hearings
September 28, 2026
Department 64

This Court does not follow the procedures described in Rules of Court, Rule 3.1308(a). Tentative rulings are available online no less than 12 hours in advance of the time set for hearing. Tentative rulings may be found on the court's website (www.shasta.courts.ca.gov) and are available by clicking on the "Tentative Rulings" link under the "Online Services" tab. A QR code that links to the tentative rulings is posted outside the courtroom. A party is not required to give notice to the Court or other parties of intent to appear to present argument.

IMPORTANT: PLEASE NOTE THAT THE COURT NO LONGER USES COURTCALL. REMOTE APPEARANCES MAY NOW BE MADE THROUGH WEBEX.**

Once you have gained access, wait for the court to start the calendar. Please follow these instructions once a calendar is called:

1. Please mute your telephone until your case is called.
2. Please do not place the call on hold.
3. Minimize all background noise during your call.
4. Please identify yourself, each time, prior to speaking with the court.
5. Disconnect when the court has completed your case or cases.
6. The court prohibits the recording of these proceedings.

8:30 a.m. Law and Motion

ALVAREZ- HERNANDEZ VS. MENLOVE, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0207463

Tentative Ruling on Order to Show Cause Re Sanctions: An Order to Show Cause Re: Sanctions (“OSC”) issued on August 17, 2026, to Plaintiff and Counsel for failure to appear at an August 10, 2026 hearing. No response to the OSC has been filed. Sanctions will be imposed in the amount of $250. The clerk is instructed to prepare a separate Order of Sanctions. The Court confirms today’s review hearing set for 9:00 a.m.

BLEAKLEY VS. AIRBNB, INC, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 26CV-0210657

Tentative Ruling on Motion for Order Nunc Pro Tunc to Set Filing Date: Plaintiff Michelle Bleakley moves for an Order nunc pro tunc setting (or amending) the filing date for the Complaint in this action as May 11, 2026 to correct a clerical error. The Court finds that the filing was improperly rejected by the clerk. Sufficient evidence has been presented of the attempt to file on May 11, 2026. “Courts have inherent power to enter judgments nunc pro tunc so as to relate back to the time when they should have been entered but will do so only to avoid injustice.” Phillips v. Phillips (1953) 41 Cal.2d 869, 875. The Motion is GRANTED. The proposed order will be executed. The clerk is directed to set the filing date of the Complaint in this matter to May 11, 2026.

DRIVER VS. ERETH

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0209266

Tentative Ruling on Order to Show Cause Re Sanctions: An Order to Show Cause Re: Sanctions (“OSC”) issued on August 13, 2026, to Plaintiff and Counsel for failure to timely serve Defendant pursuant to CRC 3.110(b). No response has been filed. Plaintiff has taken no action on this matter since filing the Complaint on November 21, 2025. Sanctions will be imposed in the amount of $250. The clerk is instructed to prepare a separate Order of Sanctions. Failure to appear today will result in the issuance of an OSC re Dismissal.

GAFFNEY VS. PRIME HEALTHCARE ASC - REDDING, LLC, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 23CV-0202050

This matter is on calendar for a hearing on compliance with the Court’s Order Granting Approval of PAGA Settlement dated April 28, 2026. A Declaration filed September 23, 2026 provides that settlement administration is not complete. Today's review hearing is continued to Monday, December 14, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. in Department 64. Plaintiff is ordered to file a Declaration regarding compliance no later than five court days prior to the future hearing date. No appearances are necessary on today's calendar.

HOLLOWELL VS. LITTLEPAGE, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0206936

Tentative Ruling on Motion for Relief from Order: Plaintiff moves for relief from all prior orders imposing discovery sanctions pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure 473(b). No proof of service is on file. The Code of Civil Procedure section 1005 sets forth the requirements for providing written notice of all motions. The Court cannot reach the merits of a motion absent timely written notice to all parties. Therefore, Plaintiff’s Motion is DENIED without prejudice.

No proposed order was submitted as required by Local Rule 5.17(D). Plaintiff is ordered to submit the proposed order.

LOGAN VS. GENERAL MOTORS, LLC

CASE NUMBER: 26CV-0211049

Tentative Ruling on Demurrer: General Motors LLC (“GM”) moves for an order sustaining GM’s Demurrer to the Third and Fourth Causes of Action of Plaintiff’s First Amended Complaint. Plaintiff opposes the Demurrer.

Meet and Confer: CCP § 430.41 requires the demurring party to “meet and confer in person or by telephone with the party who filed the pleading that is subject to demurrer for the purpose of determining whether an agreement can be reached that would resolve the objections to be raised in the demurrer.” The Declaration of Ryan Kay does not establish compliance with the meet and confer requirements. CCP 430.41(a)(4) provides that an insufficient meet and confer process shall not be grounds to overrule or sustain a demurrer. Therefore, the Court elects to reach the merits as it will not prejudice Plaintiff in this instance, rather than continuing the hearing to require meet and confer.

Merits: A demurrer should be sustained if the complaint fails to “state facts sufficient to constitute a valid cause of action.” CCP § 430.10(e). A demurrer can be used to challenge defects that appear on the face of the complaint or from matters that may be subject to judicial notice. Blank v. Kirwan (1985) 39 Cal. 3d 311, 318. The court “treat[s] the demurrer as admitting all material facts properly pleaded, but not contentions, deductions or conclusions of fact or law.” Hood v. Hacienda La Puente Unified School District (1998) 65 Cal. App. 4th 435, 438. No matter how unlikely, a plaintiff’s allegations must be accepted as true for the purpose of ruling on a demurrer. Del. E. Webb Corp. v. Structural Materials Co. (1981) 123 Cal. App. 3d 593, 604. A plaintiff must plead ultimate facts that acquaint the defendant with the nature, source and extent of plaintiff’s causes of action. Doe v. City of Los Angeles (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 542, 550.

GM demurs to Plaintiff’s Third Cause of Action for Fraudulent Concealment on the grounds that it fails to state facts sufficient to establish the cause of action and fails to allege the transactional relationship giving rise to a duty to disclose. GM also demurs to Plaintiff’s Fourth Cause of Action for violation of the Consumer Legal Remedies Act (CLRA) on the grounds that it fails to set forth facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action and that it is barred by Plaintiff’s failure to give proper notice. The First Amended Complaint filed July 29, 2026 is the operative pleading.

Third Cause of Action – Fraudulent Concealment

“The required elements for fraudulent concealment are (1) concealment or suppression of a material fact; (2) by a defendant with a duty to disclose the fact; (3) the defendant intended to defraud the plaintiff by intentionally concealing or suppressing the fact; (4) the plaintiff was unaware of the fact and would have acted differently if the concealed or suppressed fact was known; and (5) the plaintiff sustained damage as a result of the concealment or suppression of the material fact. (Graham v. Bank of America, N.A. (2014) 226 Cal.App.4th 594, 606 [172 Cal. Rptr. 3d 218]; see also CACI No. 1901.) A duty to disclose a material fact can arise if (1) it is imposed by statute; (2) the defendant is acting as the plaintiff’s fiduciary or is in some other confidential relationship with the plaintiff that imposes a disclosure duty under the circumstances; (3) the material facts are known or accessible only to the defendant, and the defendant knows those facts are not known or reasonably discoverable by the plaintiff (i.e., exclusive knowledge); (4) the defendant makes representations but fails to disclose other facts that materially qualify the facts disclosed or render the disclosure misleading (i.e., partial concealment); or (5) the defendant actively conceals discovery of material fact from the plaintiff (i.e., active concealment).” Rattagan v. Uber Technologies, Inc. (2024) 17 Cal.5th 1, 40.

Here, GM argues no duty exists because Plaintiff did not buy directly from GM. Dhital v. Nissan North America, Inc. (2022) 84 Cal.App.5th 828, 843-844, rejected the same argument where the plaintiffs alleged they bought from an authorized dealership, the manufacturer issued an express warranty, and its dealerships were its agents for sales. The Supreme Court later dismissed review in Dhital after deciding Rattagan. Dhital is therefore a published decision binding on this court. Rattagan did not address dealer sales or disapprove Dhital, and it listed the seller-buyer relationship among those that can give rise to a duty. The FAC alleges the same facts: Epic Chevrolet is GM-authorized, the vehicle was sold with GM's express written warranties, and GM markets to consumers and controls its dealers' sales. (FAC ¶¶ 6, 8-9, 82-88.) The Court also finds that the allegations are pled with the requisite heightened specificity necessary for a fraud cause of action. The demurrer is OVERRULED.

Fourth Cause of Action – Violation of Civil Code Section 1750 et seq. (Consumer Legal Remedies Act)

The CLRA provides that a defendant may be liable for “unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices” in the “sale ... of goods” including “[r]epresenting that goods ... have ... characteristics ... which they do not have ...” or “[r]epresenting that goods ... are of a particular standard, quality, or grade ... if they are of another.” Klein v. Chevron U.S.A., Inc. (2012) 202 Cal.App.4th 1342, 1374.

Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint alleges that Defendant's conduct violated Civil Code Sections 1770(a)(7), 1770(a)(9), and 1770(a)(14) by representing the subject vehicle was of a particular quality, while knowing the transmission could not conform to the standard they were advertising, and could not be fixed. Defendant argues Plaintiff did not provide adequate notice of the CLRA claim pursuant to Civ. Code 1782. The Court finds that the 30-day notice defect was remedied by the notice provided with the original Complaint and the filing of the First Amended Complaint over 30 days thereafter. Defendant further argues that the claim is not pled with the required specificity. The Court finds that the FAC does plead specific acts supporting a violation, including that GM represented that the subject vehicle's transmission had world class performance, refined transfer of power, increased efficiency, etc. while knowing that the transmission was defective and not fixable. The cause of action states sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action. The demurrer is OVERRULED.

Defendant's Demurrer to Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint is OVERRULED. Defendant is ordered to submit a proposed order consistent with this ruling.

Tentative Ruling on Motion to Strike: General Motors LLC (“GM”) moves to strike the demand for punitive damages in the Prayer for Relief from Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint on the grounds that Plaintiff has not pled a viable fraud claim or any other cause of action that can support a punitive damages claim, and that such a claim is barred by GM's defenses. Plaintiff opposes the Motion to Strike.

Meet and Confer: CCP § 435.5 requires the demurring party to “meet and confer in person or by telephone with the party who filed the pleading that is subject to demurrer for the purpose of determining whether an agreement can be reached that would resolve the objections to be raised in the demurrer.” The Declaration of Ryan Kay does not establish compliance with the meet and confer requirements. CCP 435.5(a)(4) provides that an insufficient meet and confer process shall not be grounds to grant or deny a motion to strike. Therefore, the Court elects to reach the merits as it will not prejudice Plaintiff in this instance, rather than continuing the hearing to require meet and confer.

Merits: A motion to strike reaches only "irrelevant, false, or improper matter inserted in any pleading" or matter "not drawn or filed in conformity with the laws of this state." (Code Civ. Proc., § 436.) As with a demurrer, the court's review is limited to the face of the challenged pleading and matters subject to judicial notice; the allegations of the complaint are accepted as true, and extrinsic evidence offered by either side to create or resolve factual disputes is not properly considered on this motion. (Code Civ. Proc., § 437(a)).

Here, Defendant moves to strike punitive damages from the prayer for relief on the grounds that Plaintiff has not pled a viable fraud claim or any other cause of action that can support a punitive damages claim. Both parties refer to their briefing on the concurrently filed Demurrer, which is also on calendar today. As detailed in the Court’s tentative ruling on the Demurrer, the Court finds that Plaintiff has stated sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action for fraudulent concealment (Third Cause of Action) and for violation of the Consumer Legal Remedies Act, Civil Code section 1750 et seq. (Fourth Cause of Action). These two causes of action support a prayer for punitive damages.

Therefore, Defendant’s Motion to Strike is DENIED. Defendant is ordered to submit a proposed order consistent with this ruling.

LOZANO VS. COUNTY OF SHASTA
CASE NUMBER: 26CV-0210630

Tentative Ruling on Demurrer: Defendant County of Shasta demurs to the Plaintiff’s “Second Amended Complaint” filed July 13, 2026 on the grounds that it fails to allege facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action against Defendant pursuant to CCP 430.10(e). Plaintiff opposes the Demurrer.

Meet and Confer: CCP § 430.41 requires the demurring party to “meet and confer in person or by telephone with the party who filed the pleading that is subject to demurrer for the purpose of determining whether an agreement can be reached that would resolve the objections to be raised in the demurrer.” The Declaration of Renee Belcastro establishes compliance with the meet and confer requirements.

Merits: A demurrer should be sustained if the complaint fails to “state facts sufficient to constitute a valid cause of action.” CCP § 430.10(e). A demurrer can be used to challenge defects that appear on the face of the complaint or from matters that may be subject to judicial notice. Blank v. Kirwan (1985) 39 Cal. 3d 311, 318. The court “treat[s] the demurrer as admitting all material facts properly pleaded, but not contentions, deductions or conclusions of fact or law.” Hood v. Hacienda La Puente Unified School District (1998) 65 Cal. App. 4th 435, 438. No matter how unlikely, a plaintiff’s allegations must be accepted as true for the purpose of ruling on a demurrer. Del. E. Webb Corp. v. Structural Materials Co. (1981) 123 Cal. App. 3d 593, 604. A plaintiff must plead ultimate facts that acquaint the defendant with the nature, source and extent of plaintiff's causes of action. Doe v. City of Los Angeles (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 542, 550.

The operative complaint is Plaintiff's "Second Amended Complaint," filed July 13, 2026. It alleges the following causes of action on the caption page: 1) Wrongful Eviction/Unlawful Ouster (Cal. Civ. Code 789.3); 2) Conversion; 3) Negligence; 4) Trespass to Chattels. Within the body of the Complaint, Plaintiff also alleges: 5) Negligence; and 6) 42 USC 1983. The Amended Complaint consists mainly of a narrative description of events concerning his alleged tenancy at 2711 Cascade Blvd. Plaintiff alleges he lived there with the owner's permission, but was told not to return to the premises after the owner died. Plaintiff alleges his right to occupy the property is pursuant to a verbal lease agreement with the late owner.

None of the Causes of Action plead any elements at all. They consist simply of a list of causes of action. This is insufficient to put Defendant on notice of the nature, source, and extent of Plaintiff's causes of action. Further, even taken as true and given a liberal reading in favor of the Plaintiff, the facts alleged in the narrative portion of the Amended Complaint do not state sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action against Defendant. Plaintiff has not alleged a landlord-tenant relationship with the County and has not alleged that any particular personal property was unlawfully taken by the County.

Plaintiff has already had the opportunity to amend the Complaint to state a claim for relief against the County, after the County's first Demurrer was sustained with leave to amend. Plaintiff was unable to do so. The Opposition does not identify any additional facts that could be alleged to state a claim. There does not appear to be a reasonable possibility that the Complaint could be further amended to properly state a claim. Therefore, the Demurrer is SUSTAINED without leave to amend. A proposed order was improperly included as page 7 of the County's moving papers. Proposed orders must be submitted as stand-alone documents. The County is to submit a new proposed order for execution.

ROWLAND VS. PERRIN CONSTRUCTION, LLC, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 26CV-0209639

Tentative Ruling on Motion to Compel Further Responses to Requests for Production:

Plaintiff moves for an order compelling further responses to Requests for Production of Documents, Set One. Plaintiff also requests an award of $2,000 in sanctions for bringing this Motion. Defendant opposes the Motion.

Pursuant to Ca. Code of Civ. Pro. section 2031.310(b) a motion to compel further responses must be accompanied by a meet and confer declaration under Section 2016.040, which provides "a meet and confer declaration in support of a motion shall state facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt, either in person, by telephone, or by videoconference, to informally resolve each issue presented by the motion."

The Declaration of attorney Jameson Evans establishes that counsel sent meet and confer letters identifying deficiencies. The parties thereafter agreed to supplementation and extensions via email. Defendant later missed a deadline to supplement responses as agreed, and Plaintiff filed the instant Motion. There is no evidence in the record of a good faith attempt to meet and confer in person, by telephone, or by videoconference to informally resolve the issues raised by Motion. However, this is not grounds to deny a motion on the merits.

Additionally, Defendant's Opposition identifies numerous issues it alleges are moot due to supplemental responses served on September 10, 2026. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling on September 23, 2026, Plaintiff had not timely filed a Reply brief (due on September 18, 2026 because of the September 25, 2026 Court holiday). Therefore, the Court cannot determine which, if any, substantive issues remain for determination by the Court.

Today's hearing is continued to Monday, October 19, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. in Department 64. The parties are ordered to meet and confer in good faith in person, by telephone or by videoconference as required by CCP 2031.310(b). Plaintiff is ordered to file a supplemental meet and confer declaration no later than October 12, 2026, which also identifies all issues remaining to be addressed by the Court. No appearances are necessary on today's calendar.

Tentative Ruling on Motion to Compel Further Responses to Form Interrogatories: Plaintiff moves for an order compelling further responses to Form Interrogatories – General, and Form Interrogatories – Employment Law, Set One. Plaintiff also requests an award of $2,000 in sanctions for bringing this Motion. Defendant opposes the Motion.

Pursuant to Ca. Code of Civ. Pro. section 2030.300(b) a motion to compel further responses must be accompanied by a meet and confer declaration under Section 2016.040, which provides “a meet and confer declaration in support of a motion shall state facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt, either in person, by telephone, or by videoconference, to informally resolve each issue presented by the motion.”

The Declaration of attorney Jameson Evans establishes that counsel sent meet and confer letters identifying deficiencies. The parties thereafter agreed to supplementation and extensions via email. Defendant later missed a deadline to supplement responses as agreed, and Plaintiff filed the instant Motion. There is no evidence in the record of a good faith attempt to meet and confer in person, by telephone, or by videoconference to informally resolve the issues raised by Motion. However, this is not grounds to deny a motion on the merits.

Additionally, Defendant's Opposition identifies numerous issues it alleges are moot due to supplemental responses served on September 10, 2026. As of the preparation of this tentative ruling on September 23, 2026, Plaintiff had not timely filed a Reply brief (due on September 18, 2026 because of the September 25, 2026 Court holiday). Therefore, the Court cannot determine which, if any, substantive issues remain for determination by the Court.

Today's hearing is continued to Monday, October 19, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. in Department 64. The parties are ordered to meet and confer in good faith in person, by telephone or by videoconference as required by CCP 2030.300(b). Plaintiff is ordered to file a supplemental meet and confer declaration no later than October 12, 2026, which also identifies all issues remaining to be addressed by the Court. No appearances are necessary on today's calendar.

9:00 a.m. Review Hearings

ALVAREZ- HERNANDEZ VS. MENLOVE, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0207463

This matter is on calendar for status of service on Defendant Menlove. On April 24, 2026, the Court granted an order to serve Defendant Menlove by publication. No proof of service by publication has been filed. The Court has previously issued and later vacated an Order to Show Cause re Dismissal of this Defendant due to failure to timely serve. This action was filed April 8, 2025 and is still not at issue. An appearance is necessary on today's calendar to provide a status of service.

HOLLOWELL VS. LITTLEPAGE, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0206936

This matter is on calendar for status and possible trial setting. At the Mandatory Settlement Conference held on July 27, 2026, the Court advised Plaintiff that he was required to serve Defendant Skyline Environmental, Inc. within sixty days. The Court also issued an Order to Show Cause re Sanctions in the amount of $250 for Plaintiff's failure to timely serve Skyline Environmental. However, due to a clerical error, the OSC did not issue. Plaintiff has since filed a Proof of Service of Summons (on September 3, 2026), however it is invalid because Item 5.b. is incomplete as it does not list the date and time of service, and the appropriate boxes are not checked. An amended proof of service must be filed. Appearances are necessary on today's calendar to discuss status of service, responsive pleadings, and possible trial setting.

LOZANO VS. CALIFORNIA TOWING & TRANSPORT, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0208662

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of the case. This matter is at issue. Defendants California Towing and Transport and County of Shasta are the only remaining active Defendants. Each has filed an Answer. Trial has already been set in this matter for July 27, 2027 at 8:45 in Department 64. That date is confirmed. No appearances are necessary on today's calendar.

LOZANO VS. COUNTY OF SHASTA

CASE NUMBER: 26CV-0210630

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of the case. The Court intends to sustain Defendant County of Shasta's Demurrer without leave to amend on this morning's law and motion calendar. Upon receipt of the County's proposed order and the Court's entry of order, all future dates will be vacated and the file closed.

MCCLOSKEY VS. MORENO-MUNGUIA

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0208928

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of default judgment. Default judgment was entered on September 23, 2026. Today's hearing is dropped from calendar. No appearances are necessary.

MIDLAND CREDIT MANAGEMENT, INC. VS. GALLAGHER

CASE NUMBER: 25CVG-01942

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of the case. Notice of Conditional Settlement was filed on January 6, 2026 indicating the matter would be dismissed no later than July 29, 2026. No dismissal has been filed. The Court intends to dismiss this case pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.1385 unless the parties appear at today's hearing and show good cause why the case should not be dismissed.

MORRIS VS. INTERVENTIONAL PAIN SOLUTIONS, PC, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0209245

This matter is on calendar for trial setting. The Court designates this matter as a plan II case and intends to set the matter for trial no later than May 18, 2027. Defendants have posted jury fees but Plaintiff has not. Plaintiff is granted 10 days leave to post jury fees. A failure to post jury fees in that time will be deemed a waiver of the right to a jury. The parties are ordered to appear to provide the Court with available trial dates.

SIMMONS VS. JOHNSON & JOHNSON, ET AL

CASE NUMBER: CVPO17-0188587

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of the coordinated action. This matter has been transferred to Los Angeles County Superior Court for coordination in JCCP No. 4872. A Status Report has been filed which provides that the coordinated action is currently pending in the Los Angeles Superior Court. This matter is continued to Monday, September 27, 2027, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 64. Plaintiff is ordered to file a Status Report at least five days prior to the continued hearing date. No appearance is necessary on today's calendar.

STAYER VS. A PLUS SAFETY LLC, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 23CV-0203556 consolidated with 24CV-0205834

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of bankruptcy. Plaintiff Mary Howard-Slinkard has submitted a status statement which indicates that all claims against Defendant Cardone, who has filed for bankruptcy protection, will be voluntarily dismissed. Plaintiff Madison Stayer has submitted a status statement indicating the parties expect to possibly file a motion to lift any bankruptcy stay imposed by Cardone's bankruptcy. This matter remains stayed in this Court pending resolution of the bankruptcy proceedings. Today's review hearing is continued to Monday, December 28, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. in Department 64 for review regarding status of bankruptcy. No appearances are necessary on today's calendar.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA VS. META PLATFORMS INC, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0208301

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of JCCP proceedings. The Court received a Notice of Stay of Proceedings on September 25, 2025, that this case has been coordinated with Judicial Council Coordination Proceeding number 5225 in Los Angeles County Superior Court. The Court set today's review hearing and ordered a status statement filed five court days prior to the review hearing. No status statement has been filed. An appearance is necessary to provide a status.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA VS. $1,920.00 U.S. CURRENCY

CASE NUMBER: 26CV-0210554

This matter is on calendar for a status conference. At the most recent review hearing on June 29, 2026, Petitioner's Counsel advised the Court that the Petitioner intended to return the Claimant's funds, and requested a ninety day continuance for confirmation of receipt of funds. Nothing further has been filed. Appearances are necessary on today's calendar to confirm return of funds.

WALLACE, ET AL. VS. GENERAL MOTORS, LLC

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0208175

This matter is on calendar for review regarding status of the case. Notice of Conditional Settlement was filed on April 24, 2026 indicating the matter would be dismissed no later than July 23, 2026. No dismissal has been filed. The Court intends to dismiss this case pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.1385 unless the parties appear at today's hearing and show good cause why the case should not be dismissed.
