

9:00 3	24CV439631	Miriam Ben Abdallah, M.D. v. Stephen W. Fackler, et al.	Order on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendant Aditi Gupta To Produce Further Responses to Requests for Production, Set Two, and for Sanctions The Court makes four Rulings now: 1. Because resolution of privacy objections made by Defendant Aditi Gupta ("Defendant") is inextricably entwined with Defendant's Motion for a Protective Order set for hearing on August 21, 2026, Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendant to Produce Further Responses to RFPs, Set Two, is hereby CONTINUED to August 21, 2026 at 9 AM in Department 16 so that the Court may efficiently and effectively resolve both Motions at the same time. 2. That said, Counsel of record for all parties are ORDERED to still appear in person on June 17, 2026 at 9 AM in Department 16, where we will discuss ramifications for counsel practicing in this Court violating the Santa Clara County Bar Association (SCCBA) Code of Professionalism. See, e.g., Section 18 thereof (on Protective Orders: "Privacy. A lawyer should cooperate in arranging for protective measures designed to assure that any private information revealed is disclosed only to those persons who need it in order to present the relevant evidence to the court if it is necessary for a lawyer to inquire into such matters."); Standing Order re SCCBA Code of Professionalism (filed: March 28, 2023) (authorizing Judges to apply SCCBA Code of Professionalism to adjudicate discovery disputes).

			3. By July 1, 2026, the parties are ORDERED either: (1) to file a proposed Stipulated Protective Order, or (2) if the parties here are not capable of agreeing on one despite it being common practice of thousands of litigants in civil actions in Santa Clara County Superior Court to do so, then each party must file its own proposed Protective Order for the Court to consider. Directly after filing that document on July 1, 2026, counsel will also send a courtesy copy by email to Department16@scscourt.org in Word format. So if these parties are not capable of agreeing on a Stipulated Protective Order, then a Protective Order—with standard tiers of confidentiality designations and use restrictions subject to review and enforcement by the Court—will be selected and crafted for them by the Court. 4. The Trial Setting Conference (“TSC”) that had been set for July 8, 2026, is CONTINUED to August 26, 2026 at 11 AM in Department 16. Before that August 26th TSC, counsel for all parties are ORDERED to meet and confer to seek agreement on a mutually-convenient trial date in the range of August to November 2027. If, for whatever reason, the parties here are not capable of agreeing on a trial date within that range, then the Court will pick one for them at the August 26, 2026 Trial Setting Conference. SO ORDERED.
