MOTION TO COMPEL AND REQUEST MONETARY SANCTIONS

As to the Motion to Compel and Request for Monetary Sanctions filed on May 4, 2026, the Court finds the meet and confer efforts to be inadequate. The Court therefore orders the following:

Parties are to immediately begin the meet and confer process on this Motion to Compel Further Discovery Responses and Request for Monetary Sanctions dated May 4, 2026. The parties are ordered to meet and confer on video conference or in person in a good faith effort to resolve each matter on an item-by-item basis. Both parties are referred to standards of professionalism and civility as discussed in Townsend v. Superior Court (1998) 61 Cal.App.4th 1431, 1439; and Manzetti v. Superior Court (1993) 21 Cal.App.4th 373, 380, fn.8. The meet and confer meeting(s) is to be recorded and the recording is to be made available to the Court at the hearing. All parties/attorneys are ordered to make the recording or may all agree to only one party making the recording.

No later than August 14, 2026, the parties shall file a JOINT status report of no more than 5 pages outlining which, if any, items remain in dispute and why, including any request for sanctions. Failure to sign and participate in drafting the joint report will open each side to monetary sanctions for failure to follow this Order pursuant to California Rules of Court 5.14 and 5.98.

The parties shall not file a response or reply papers or any other papers in support or opposition of this motion. The court will only consider the joint status report that should explain what item(s) remains in dispute and the legal reasons why it's in dispute.

Parties shall explain the amount of monetary sanctions sought and the reasons why within the joint status report such that the court can address the same in any subsequent order individually.

The court reminds the parties that it is not enough to refer the court back to the original papers or to other papers filed in association with each matter or previous status report. Moreover, the joint status report(s) should proceed to list items remaining in dispute along with the legal reason(s) why. The parties shall submit a joint status report that complies with CRC 3.1345 which explains why a specific request is in dispute and each party's position. Parties should be careful to delineate the items in dispute in such a way that the Court will be fully aware as to which set of discovery the item in dispute is referring. If an item is not specifically listed and briefed with applicable points and authorities in the joint status report, the Court will assume that the issue has been resolved.
