

				Citation to authority for this premise has never been provided. As previously discussed on other matters, once the estate is opened, the social security benefits are reportable to the Court, absent Court order. No such Court order was ever made in this matter, excusing reporting requirements. Moreover, the Petition indicates that shortly after this particular zero asset account ends, which was over two year ago, funds were finally marshalled into the estate. Nevertheless, the Petitioner requests the Court excuse any other accountings. At this time, waiver is not recommended due to the lack of transparency of the status of the matter, which appears to have changed drastically without any clear explanation. The Second Account is due immediately due to the issues in this Account. This Account is not recommended for approval until the Court receives clear explanations on what happened to the funds expected and the Second Account for review. Due to the delay in this matter and the state of this account presented, it is recommended the Court set OSC re: Sanctions of $1,000 for the failure to file the account and responses to this Petition by the court-ordered deadline of April 24, 2026. 2. What is the status of bond? Who has been paying bond premiums? The Court ordered bond over both estates, which as posted.
